

Hello. Jesus here. I should begin with a disclaimer that I am in cartoon form. I'm not saying the artist did a bad job drawing me, just that it's not an exact thing. Also, in these sessions, she's going to do her best to represent me, as she understands me from scripture. So cut her some slack; she's trying. Her answers will be in the first person.

Session 5: Finding Love would be nice

I appreciate your inviting me to speak with you today. There are a lot of questions people have, a lot of feelings people have.

In this session, we will discuss the topic: Finding Love would be nice.

I know that Valentine's Day is past, but I wanted to talk a bit about love. True love. Not just the backseat of a car kind of love.

The word for it in Greek is Agape, or unconditional love. It's true love, no matter what.

I can hear what you're thinking:

- 1) Good luck finding true love. Guys around here are only looking for one thing.
- 2) I wish I could find someone who really knew me and loved me anyway.
- 3) I don't even love myself like that. I know what I'm like, and I hate myself.

Well, it's completely true that people are going to let us down. No matter how good the person is, they are human. Only God has the kind of love that is perfect.

One of you just thought:

Even God couldn't love me. I know I don't.

Sometimes, we think that God's love is something we have to be good enough for, something we have to deserve or earn. It's not like that. Romans 5:8 says:

God demonstrates His love for us like this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

God didn't wait for us to be good enough to love. He loves, because that is Who He is: Perfect Love. The Bible says that none of us are good enough. Our best efforts are garbage compared to a perfect God.

That's where I come in.
